

Wednesday, April 30, 6:00 pm

FREE PUBLIC LECTURE

Harvard Northwest Building B-103 (52 Oxford Street, Cambridge)
Complimentary event parking: 52 Oxford Street Garage

WORLDLY WORLDING

Curating the Imaginal Fields of Science and Art

Carolyn Christov-Bakargiev

Edith Kreeger Wolf Distinguished Visiting Professor of Art Theory & Practice, Northwestern University

Curator, author, and researcher Carolyn Christov-Bakargiev served as artistic director of dOCUMENTA (13) from 2008 to 2012. In this lecture, she questions how we define artistic practice and research, using examples of artwork and displays created for dOCUMENTA (13), held in Kassel, Germany, in 2012.

SPONSORED BY

Harvard Museums of Science & Culture and Harvard Art Museums as part of the Harvard Museums' Seminar on Innovative Curatorial Practice
www.hmsc.harvard.edu